Notes and Comments.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord for he is good.

UNTO thee O God do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks.

BLESSED is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

I WILL sing of the mercies of the Lord forever; with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

To shew forth thy loving kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night.

The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvelous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

COUNT, if you can, God's favors and mercies during the year.

THERE are a thousand reasons why we should give special thanks on Nov. 28.

If you do not possess the spirit of thankfulness then there must be something seriously wrong with your heart.

ARE you thankful?

ALL our trials and mishaps sink out of sight in the presence of God's goodness and mercy.

THE report under K. C. department, headed "Graduating Exercises," is taken from the Milledgeville Free Press.

NEXT week will appear an editorial on the work of the Conferences, National and District, of the year 1895.

God's mercies and favors during the past year have outnumbered ten to one, our disappointments and misfortunes.

OUR premium offer will be announced next week. We have some very liberal offers to make which we feel will please and interest all our readers.

FREE.—Those who feel themselves too poor to pay for the EVANGELIST will please write us and we will tell them how to get the paper free, and in such a way as to be no loss to us.

THE church at Homer, Ohio, has lately organized an S. S. C. E. It is commendable that so many of our churches are falling in line with the movements of the National Conference. Every organization which is a creation of, or endorsed by the National Conference, should have the heartly and unanimous support of every loyal church in the brotherhood.

THERE are from 300 to 400 single subscriptions on our list. That is only one paper going to each of so many offices.
Now cannot each of these secure just one new subscriber? We think you can. If your paper comes to you in wrapper addressed with pen or pencil, that means that there is but one paper going to your office. Will you try to get another? Is there some one near your office that should read the paper? Write us, and we will give you a plan by which you can easily earn your paper and his.

WOMAN suffrage was defeated in Mass., at the last election. The saloons did it.
They know very well that woman suffrage means death to the saloon. How long will the Christian church tolerate the saloon curse in this land?

IN this issue appears an Obituary Notice and Biographical sketch of our late brother W. H. Herrington, of Lanark, Ill. It was intended that the sketch be accompanied by a portrait of Brother Herrington, and this accounts for its lateness. The "cut" proved to be a poor one, and we will make an effort to get a good one and have it appear in the Almanac.

How many families are there in the Brethren church, not readers of the EVAN-GELIST? There should be none. A brother writes that he is too poor to pay for the EVANGELIST but he has decided to do without some other things and asks us to send the paper to him. A little self-denial will enable even the poorest to get the paper.

THE influence of the King's Children is being felt in more than one way. First, the Society is raising the standard of spirituality among our young people. Second, it is developing some very excellent talent in the way of contributions. We acknowledge the receipt of very creditable contributions from the young members of the Society. Third, it is doing a great work financially, teaching the young what to give and how to give, which is as verily a part of worship as praying. Fourth, the Society is instilling into the minds of the young the importance of supporting a denominational literature, setting forth the doctrines of the church.
It maintains that it is as important to preach doctrine through the literature of the church, as it is to preach it from the pulpit. Work it out along this line and you will win.

earth, in being all light and no shadow.
